

The Appeal of Tokyo, the Global City

Roppongi Hills, Mori Tower

Saturday, December 12th, 2015 13:30-16:00

DMO Roppongi, organized by Mori Building, Tokyo Midtown, Hyatt Regency, Ritz-Carlton and other services facilities, invites you to the event which will contribute to rethink cultural sightseeing and urban planning.

The program is consisted of two parts. You can participate both or choose one. Please join us!

Date : Saturday, December 12th, 2015 13:30-16:00

Venue : Roppongi Hills, Mori Tower

Fee : Free

Program Part 1 Seminar & Viewing

13 : 30 Meeting point at Roppongi Hills (announced later)

13 : 35 Opening Greeting from DMO Roppongi

13 : 40-14 : 10 Seminar "The Appeal of Tokyo, the Global City"

14 : 10-14 : 50 Viewing of 1/1000 scale model of Tokyo

14 : 50-15 : 00 transit

Part 2 Experience Japanese Culture "Let's perform Kabuki"

15 : 00-16 : 00 Workshop: How to perform Kabuki plays

Try to memorize and perform lines from lines from classical plays

15 : 40-16 : 00 Coffee break & Networking

Organizer : Destination Marketing Organization(DMO) Roppongi

National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies(GRIPS), Cultural Policy Program

Participants: 20 Persons (Foreign students are very welcome!)

Registration: Email to gripsculture-ml@grips.ac.jp by December 4th

Contact : National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies(GRIPS),

Cultural Policy Program

TEL: 03-6439-6162 / 6164 【Prof.E.Kakiuchi, R.Associate S. Shimura】

E-mail: gripsculture-ml@grips.ac.jp

<http://www.culture.grips.ac.jp>